

JIN HWA LEE (Korea, Republic of)

Korean-born pianist, Jin Hwa Lee has attracted the public's attention, establishing herself as a pianist of huge vigor and perceptive insight, since receiving acclamation on her New York debut concerts and her solo debut CD 'Jin Hwa Lee plays Rachmaninov'. She earned the Doctor of Musical Arts degree from the University of Michigan, and previously studied at Peabody Conservatory of the Johns Hopkins University and Seoul National University where she graduated with high honors. Dr. Lee recently performed at major venues in US including at Carnegie Weil Hall and St. Joseph's Church Yorkville in New York City, Max M Fisher Music Center and Steinway Hall in Detroit, and she has been invited to perform as a guest pianist at Eastman School of Music and Oberlin Conservatory. Her performances have been broadcast in the US Detroit Public Radio WRCJ, Baltimore Public Radio WJBC and Bloomfield Community TV. Dr. Lee previously won top prizes in numerous national competitions in Korea including the Bechstein Samick Piano competition, also at American Protégé International Piano & Strings Competition and International Concerto Competition. Her principle teachers have included Arthur Greene, Yong Hi Moon and HaeSun Paik. She presently serves on the lecturer of the Music Academy of Seoul Arts Center, Graduate School of Interdisciplinary Arts of Sejong University, etc. in Korea.