

朱偉恒 Mr. Alan Chu

Mr. Alan Chu is the President of the World Piano Teachers Association Hong Kong, the Founder and Chairman of the International Association of Collaborative Musicians, and the Principal Keyboard of the Hong Kong Sinfonietta.

Mr. Chu obtained his Master of Music and Bachelor of Music degrees with First-Class Honours from The Royal Academy of Music and the Royal College of Music, respectively. He also received training as an Erasmus scholar at the Cologne University of Music in Germany.

Mr. Chu has worked with prestigious ensembles such as Camerata Salzburg, Hungarian Symphony Orchestra, King's College Choir Cambridge, Hong Kong New Music Ensemble, Hong Kong City Contemporary Dance Company, Hong Kong Symphonia, and Hong Kong Virtuosi. Additionally, he has collaborated in duos and in chamber music ensembles with internationally renowned artists, including Michael Collins, Raphaël Sévère, and Harriet Krijgh, among others.

Mr. Chu currently teaches at several tertiary institutions in Hong Kong, including the Chinese University of Hong Kong, Hong Kong Baptist University, the Education University of Hong Kong, and the School of Professional and Continuing Education at the University of Hong Kong. He was formerly a senior lecturer and music programme leader at The Open University of Hong Kong (now known as Hong Kong Metropolitan University).

Mr. Chu holds advisory, examiner and board member roles with Trinity College London, the Hong Kong Arts Development Council, the Hong Kong Society for Art and Charity, and Addoil Education. He is also highly sought-after as a regular juror for numerous regional and international music competitions.

In 2017, Mr. Chu was conferred the Associateship by the Royal Academy of Music (ARAM). He was subsequently elected Fellow by the Royal Society of Arts (FRSA) in 2021.
