

Biography

Izabella Paronyan is a pianist, educator, and organizer of musical events. She has dedicated her professional career to the development and promotion of classical music.

Was born on July 22, 1977 in Yerevan, Armenia, into a family of musicians. From an early age, she showed talent and a deep love for music. Her parents, noticing her abilities, provided her with a professional musical education. She graduated from music school with honors, having performed the 23rd Mozart Piano Concerto with the Chamber Orchestra of Armenia.

Then she continued her studies at the Music College after R. Melikyan and later specialized in instrumental performance at the Yerevan State Conservatory after Komitas, in the class of Professor S. Dadyan. Continuing her postgraduate studies, she became high qualified as a concert performer, chamber ensemble soloist, accompanist, and teacher.

Izabella Paronyan has performed as a soloist, artist of the ensemble and piano duo at various concert venues both in Armenia and abroad.

She is the author of the educational book "Magic Piano" and has been awarded numerous honors and diplomas for her contributions to musical arts and pedagogy. Her work has been recognized by the Yerevan City Cultural Administration and international music competitions in London, Paris, Vienna, Budapest, Abu Dhabi, St. Petersburg, Moscow, and other cities.

For many years, she has taught at leading musical institutions in Armenia, including the Music College after R. Melikyan and the Komitas State Conservatory in Yerevan as a concertmaster. Her students have repeatedly become laureates of national and international competitions.

As the founder and director of Paronyan LLC, Izabella actively develops musical education in Armenia. In 2023, she founded the "Paronan" international music school. The school's students take an active part in the country's musical events and win top awards in national and international competitions.

Izabella Paronyan is the founder and artistic director of the "GeneralBass" Baroque Music International Piano Competition, which has received great recognition in the music society and is a member of the Alink-Argerich Foundation.

Since October 2025, Isabella Paronyan has been the President of WPTA Armenia.

Isabella Paronyan continues her mission to educate new generations of musicians, striving to convey to them a deep love for classical music and its traditions.